1. DEFINITIONS

In these Terms and Conditions except where the content otherwise requires the following expressions shall have the following meanings:-

"Company" means Bassingfield Wooyard Limited

"Contract" means the contract for sale or purchase of Goods and/or the performance of Services

"Customer" means the person, firm or company dealing with the Company

"Goods" means the goods to be manufactured and/or supplied by the Company pursuant to the Contract including any goods substituted to clause 9 below and any instalment or instalments of Goods

"Services" means services which the Company is to perform under the Contract

2. TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The Company will only contract to sell the goods subject to these Terms and Conditions. Any order placed by a Customer shall be subject to these Terms and Conditions which shall override any terms and conditions which the Customer may seek to impose in negotiations in his order on any acceptance of any offer by the Company or otherwise and the placing of an order by the Customer shall be deemed to be an acceptance of these Terms and Conditions. No variation of these Terms and Conditions shall be valid unless agreed by an authorised representative of the Company in writing.

3. EXCLUSIONS LIMITATIONS AND INDEMNITIES

The Company contracts on behalf of itself its employees and in so far as any exclusion or limitation of liability or indemnity appears in these Terms and Conditions and the same shall ensure for the benefit not only of the Company but also its employees and agents.

4. LIABILITY FOR DEATH OR PERSONAL INJURY

Where in these Terms and Conditions the Company excludes or limits its liability in respect of any loss or damage the Company does not intend or purport to exclude or limit liability for death or personal injury resulting whether wholly or (pro tanto) in part from its own negligence or that of its employees or agents and these Terms and Conditions shall take effect accordingly.

5. QUOTATIONS

Any quotation is provided by the company as an invitation to treat and is subject to confirmation by the Company upon receipt of the Customer's order; the Contract shall be made only when and subject to the terms upon which the Customer's order is accepted by the Company.

6. PRICE

Unless otherwise expressly agreed by the Company in writing the price of the goods and/or Services shall be the Company's price current at the date of acceptance of the Customer's order. The Company reserves the right to increase the price to reflect any increase in the cost to the Company of any factor beyond the control of the Company including without limitation any currency exchange fluctuation or regulation or alteration of duties. All prices are exclusive of VAT and of charges for packaging transport and insurance unless otherwise stated in writing.

7. PAYMENT

Unless otherwise agreed in writing the Company shall be entitled to invoice the Customer on or at any time after delivery of any goods or performance of any Services or (where goods are to be collected by the Customer) at any time after the Company has notified the Customer that the Goods are ready for collection. The Company reserves the right to supply Goods or perform Services by instalments and to render a separate invoice in respect of each instalment. Unless otherwise agreed payment of the price plus VAT together with any other charges shall be made promptly by the Customer in full without any deduction, set off or counterclaim on or before the last day of the month following invoice and time of payment shall be of the essence of the Contract. All and any monies remaining due and unpaid to the Company after the due date shall bear interest at the rate of 4% above the base rate for the time being adopted by the Company's Bank. If the Company has to instruct solicitors or other agents to recover monies owed by the Customer the Customer will indemnify the Company in respect of all fees and costs payable by the Company to such solicitors or agents.

8. DELIVERY

8.1 Delivery of any goods shall be made by the Customer collecting the Goods at the Company's premises after the Company has notified the Customer that the goods are ready for collection or if some other place for delivery is agreed by the Company delivering the Goods to that place. Unless otherwise agreed in writing it shall be the responsibility of the Customer to collect Goods which are to be collected immediately upon being notified that the Goods are available for collection.

8.2 If the Customer fails to take delivery of any Goods (without prejudice to any other right or remedy of the Company) the Company may store the Goods at the cost and risk to the Customer or sell the Goods at the best price readily obtainable and (after deducting all storage, insurance and selling expenses) charge the Customer for any shortfall below the Contract price.

8.3 Where the Company has agreed in writing to deliver the Goods to the Customer then:-

- (1) the Customer shall pay the Company the agreed delivery charge or if no such charge has been agreed such delivery charge as the Company at its reasonable discretion may specify;
- (2) the Customer shall ensure that the delivery point has safe access capable of carrying the weight of the delivery vehicle and its load.
- (3) the Company shall be entitled to charge the Customer for all packing cases or pallets or other light items supplied and not returned to the Company; and
- (4) the unloading of the Goods from the delivery vehicle shall be the entire responsibility of the Customer who shall ensure that there is sufficient labour and machinery to carry out such unloading promptly and efficiently and safely and the Customer shall indemnify the Company against all loss or damage to or suffered by the Company in connection with such unloading.

8.4 The Company will use all reasonable endeavours to deliver Goods and to perform Services as specified in the Contract but any date or time specified for delivery or performance is (unless agreed otherwise by an authorised representative of the Company in writing) an estimate only. Without Prejudice to the generality of the foregoing delivery of Goods is subject to local environmental, political and economic conditions in the country of origin, shipping and safe arrival. Late delivery or performance shall not entitle the Customer to reject any Goods or Services, terminate the Contract, withhold any payment, claim damages or any other remedies.

9. SUBSTITUTION

Notwithstanding that time is not of the essence of the Contract in relation to delivery and without prejudice to any other of these Terms and Conditions, if for any reason the Company in its reasonable discretion believes that it will be unable to supply the Goods or any of them by any particular date, the Company may supply goods which in its reasonable discretion it believes to be of comparable quality.

10. RISK AND PROPERTY

- 10.1 Goods shall be at the risk of the Customer:
 - (1) in the case of the Goods to be collected by the Customer at the time when the Company notifies the Customer that the Goods are available for collection; or
 - (2) in the case of Goods to be delivered otherwise at the time of delivery
- 10.2 Notwithstanding delivery and the passing of risk in the Goods title in Goods supplied by the Company shall not pass to the Customer until all monies due to the Company from the Customer have been paid.
- 10.3 Until such time as title in the Goods has passed to the Customer;
 - (1) the Customer shall hold the Goods on trust for the Company and shall store the Goods properly protected and insured in such a way that they can be identified as the Goods of the Company;
 - (2) the Company (without prejudice to its other rights and remedies) shall have the right to recover and sell the Goods and to enter to any premises where the Goods are stored for that purpose.
 - (3) If the Goods are destroyed by an insurable risk the Customer shall hold the proceeds of the insurance (limited to the amount owing to the Company) on trust for the Company;
 - (4) provided that the Customer shall not be in breach of any term of the Contract the Customer shall be entitled to sell the Goods in the ordinary course of the Company's business as agent for the Company and the Customer shall hold the proceeds of sale (limited to the amount owing to the Company) on trust for the Company;
 - (5) Should the Goods become constituents of or attached to or be converted into other products the Company shall have title to such products as if they were solely and simply the Goods and the provisions of this clause shall apply thereto; and
 - (6) The Customer's rights to possession of the Goods shall cease immediately if being a body corporate it commits or omits to do any matter or thing which would entitle any person to present a petition for winding up or being other than a body corporate commits as available act of bankruptcy.

11. SHORTAGES AND ERRORS

- 11.1 The Customer shall be responsible to examine and check the Goods immediately upon receipt. Unless the Company is notified by letter despatched within 2 working days of receipt of a consignment (time being of the essence) of any alleged shortage or error the Customer shall not be entitled to reject the Goods claim damages or any other remedy and the Company shall have no liability for the same.
- 11.2 If the Company is so notified and the shortages or error is proved to the satisfaction of the Company the Company shall as soon as possible replace or make good the same or if there are circumstances beyond its control rendering such replacement or making good impossible then the Company shall refund a proportionate amount of the purchase price paid or in so far as such price has not been paid give credit accordingly but in no circumstances whatsoever will the Company be further liable or in particular be responsible for any consequential loss allegedly caused by such shortage or error.
